LPE Wins Work with AIR in Support of PCORI

LPE Associates Wins Subcontract to The American Institutes for Research (AIR) in Support of the Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute (PCORI)

(Baltimore, Maryland, July 21, 2021) LPE Associates will be working in support of PCORI to further the goal of improving evidence-based information for healthcare decisions. Teamed with a prime contractor AIR, LPE will support PCORI in the areas of education and training, facilitation of meetings and engagement, public comment, and more.

PCORI announced the award of five different domain areas to the AIR/LPE team in early July and project tasks are expected to begin shortly. LPE provides AIR and PCORI with expertise in meetings, events, training, surveys, reporting and technology.

Ezra Bourne, President and Owner of LPE notes: "This award represents another in a long series of collaborations between AIR and LPE, to include health, education and corporate program areas. We're excited to be working with AIR again in support of PCORI. "
